Molas Peak

Colorado's majestic beauty inspires all who pass its way. Perhaps Teddy Roosevelt captured the scenery bankrupts the English language. Molas peak splendidly illustrates nature's intricate artwork within the highest state in the nation.

Hello, did you that Colorado is one mile high above sea level. And we have the cleanest water. We are called the centennial state because it was made a state one hundred years after we became a country. Have a great year! Ms. Solano's Kindergarten.
